General Rules

- If an athlete, (a) is found guilty of any anti-doping rule violation by virtue of the IFBB Anti-Doping Rules, (b) participates in a non-authorized event under Article 19.3.7 of the IFBB Constitution, (c) is found guilty of any other disciplinary rule violation according to the IFBB Disciplinary Code, or (d) is suspended by his/her National Federation, he/she will lose the rights to any prize, including prize money.
- Any economic prizes, awards or recognitions which are or shall be associated to the final position achieved by the athlete in the annual ranking shall expire within one year following the date of public announcement of the final ranking. The awarded athlete who has not collected the economic prize, award or recognition within the said period, shall lose any and all rights to receive it after the expiration date.
- The award presentation for the Elite Ranking will be made with the first placed in the ranking, being mandatory for the athlete to be present in the ceremony.
